---OPTIONAL TOUR INFORMATION (AVAILABLE FROM CAIRO)----

Optional Tours in Cairo

I. Full day visit to Pyramids, Sphinx, Memphis & Sakkara with local lunch at Andrea restaurant:

Visit to Sakkara Step Pyramid & Memphis:

The Step Pyramid of Zoser a third dynasty pharaoh was probably the first pyramid ever built. It is 62 meters high and stands on a stretch of high ground over-looking Memphis. Zoser's pyramid marked the beginning of a new method of burial tomb construction. The pyramid's architect, Imhotep, was at the time a widely respected architect, High Priest and famous doctor although his tomb has not yet been located it is thought to be near Zoser's funerary chamber.

Memphis served as the capital of Upper and Lower Egypt some 5,000 years ago during the first Dynasty. Menes, the first pharaoh of this dynasty, built a great white walled palace and the temple of Ptah here.

Lunch at Andria restaurant:

Friendly service and sumptuous chicken have been key to this family-oriented restaurant's success over the years. Located near the Pyramids, this large restaurant features a spacious air-conditioned dining room with a fireplace for winter and a much-lauded garden terrace for summer. Soft lighting, pleasant views and the sizzle of the outdoor grill create a relaxed ambience. Chicken roasted to perfection is the house specialty. Kebabs, Kofta and quails are equally well prepared on patio grills.

Visit the Pyramids & Sphinx of Giza.

Giza Plateau: Giza is on the West Bank of the Nile and takes in an 18-km-wide, which includes the Great Pyramids. Despite the crowds that visit the Pyramids every year, they are truly overwhelming when you stand before them, they have survived the rise and fall of great dynasties and conquerors and they share the flat desert surrounds with the Sphinx and a number of smaller pyramids and temples.

Cheops the Great Pyramid is both the oldest and Largest, Chephren the medium Pyramid that retains part of the original Limestone casing that, once covered the entire structure and still contains the sarcophagus of King Chephren & the smallest Pyramid is that of Mycerinus built between 2525 and 2500 BC These ancient Monuments, which served as tombs for the Pharaohs, reckoned by the Greeks to be one of the Seven Wonders of the World will testify to the ancient Egyptian belief in resurrection and immortality.

Sphinx was built by Cheops' Son Chephren and located near the three Pyramids, carved from a solid block of Limestone construction of the Pyramid of Cheops; the Great Sphinx combines the head of the Pharaoh with a Lion's body

II. Full day visit to Egyptian museum, citadel, Mosque and Bazaar with local lunch at Seahorse restaurant:

Visit to the Citadel, Mohamed Aly Mosque & Khan El-Khalili:

Citadel: Salah El Din, the Ayyubid ruler of Egypt during the 12th century, built a fortress over looking Cairo in 1176 AD. The original fortifications were later torn down by Sultan El Nasir and Mohammed Ali to make room for their own mosques and palaces. For almost 700 years, to the death of Mohammed Ali in 1849, nearly all Egypt's rulers lived in the Citadel, held court, dispensed justice and received ambassadors.

Within the citadel's towering walls are the Mohammed Ali's Alabaster Mosque (built in the image of the blue Mosque of Turkey).

The decorations and the design of the mosque are very intricate and typically Turkish. The mosque is believed to be the most magnificent Islamic monument in Egypt.

Khan El Khalili: Khan el-Khalili, once known as the Turkish bazaar during the Ottoman period, is now usually just called the 'Khan', and the names of it and the Musky market are often used interchangeably to mean either. Named for the great Caravansary, the market was built in 1382 by the Emir Djaharks el-Khalili in the heart of the Fatimid City. Together with the al-Musky market to the west, they comprise one of Cairo's most important shopping areas.

Lunch at Sea horse restaurant:

The 'Sea Horse' is situated right on the banks of the Nile, full of ambience with its wonderful 'natural' decor, being made out of trees and logs, with a thatched roof .Set menu lunch will be served.

Visit to the Egyptian Museum:

The Egyptian Museum was established in 1900. It is by far the most valuable museum of Egyptian antiquities in the world. Located in the heart of Cairo, it is within walking distance from most of the leading hotels in the city. The museum is divided into galleries exhibiting items from various periods in more or less chronological order, moving clockwise along the ground floor.
The upper floor contains an area where the treasures of Tutankhamen are exhibited. All the items exhibited here came from his tomb found at the Valley of Kings at Thebes in what is now Luxor. Tutankhamen's gold coffin is made of 450 pounds of solid gold and is considered one of the most beautiful possessions of humanity.

Extra Supplement for the entrance to the mummy room (optional)
